Texarkana College Dual Credit Drops

It is the responsibility of the student to initiate a drop before their last day to drop as published in the Texarkana College catalog. Instructors may initiate an administrative drop once the student exceeds the allotted absences per the absentee policy, or if there is a disciplinary issue. These drops should be initiated by the instructor with a last date of attendance and submitted no later than the date listed in the information below; otherwise, the student will have earned their final grade for the semester.
